DANGEROUSLY ILL
Dreyfus' Physician Says He Can't Live Long.

In Three Months, It is Said, the Noted Prisoner Will Pass Away.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The Evening Journal's Paris cable says according to Dr. Pozzi, Dreyfus' physician, the latter is hopelessly ill. The doctor says Dreyfus can take no nourishment except milk and soda and cannot live but a few months.

KENNES, Sept. 12.—Mathieu Dreyfus, who visited his condemned brother in his cell, says he is hearing up well. His time is occupied reading the tremendous number of letters of sympathy received since court adjourned.

PARIS, Sept. 12.—The physical condition of Dreyfus has been communicated to the government and will be discussed in today's cabinet meeting. It will probably be the only ground on which the government can interfere in carrying out the sentence. At the cabinet council Premier Waldeck Rousseau informed his colleagues he had received reports from prefects of various departments which showed the verdict of the Rennes court martial had been received quietly everywhere.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The court martial which convicted Dreyfus yesterday signed a formal recommendation for mercy. The judges also expressed to President Loubet, through General Lucas, their desire that Dreyfus should not again be degraded.

Except for slight street disturbances Paris is quiet. It is expected that the trial of the Berolletis next Monday and the reopening of the chamber of deputies will be signs for fresh troubles.

DELAYED REPORTS
Thought to Have Been Lost Are Creating Uneasiness.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—General Ours' cablegram to the war department this morning dispelled great uncertainty among officials, by explaining that he had forwarded no mail reports of operations since April, but that his own and subordinate reports will be ready by next mail. It appears the officers have been busy in field and unable until recently to write out reports. The war department officials had feared that important documents might have been lost in transmission. A large official mail, mostly routine reports was received from the Philippines last night.

All citizens interested in the commercial progress of Paducah are requested to attend.

Judge W. P. Greene, of Evansville, Ind., will read a paper on the resources and commerce of the Tennessee river and the influence of the same upon the prosperity of the valley.

STOLE $1,000

Mr. George Duiguid Swears Out
a Warrant Against F.
T. Meyers.

GRAND LARCENY IS CHARGED

Meyers Was Sent Here With Money to Buy Lumber—Skipped.

NO TRACE OF HIM FOUND

Mr. George Duiguid, a prominent lawyer of Murray, arrived in the city last night in quest of one F. T. Meyers, a contractor who had been living in Murray for sometime past. He called at the police station and related his story. Saturday he sent Meyers to Paducah to purchase lumber and other material with which to build a house. Meyers had the contract to put up for Mr. Duiguid. Meyers failed to return Saturday or Sunday, and yesterday Mr. Duiguid himself came in, suspecting by this time that he had been worsted by the man he trusted.

The police worked all night on the case, went to the depots and wharf, but no trace could they find of him. They could not even find where he had registered at any of the hotels, nor where he stopped while here. Telegrams were sent in all directions, but no answers came, although a good description was sent abroad.

This morning Mr. Duiguid had about abandoned all hope of ever recovering any of his $1,000. He went before Judge Sanders and swore out a warrant against Meyers for grand larceny. While at first sight it might seem as though it were merely a breach of trust, the converting of the money to his own use makes the charge of grand larceny against Meyers.

The fugitive went to Murray from Mayfield, with good recommendations, and his mother was in Murray with him. Mr. Duiguid did not suspect for a moment that the man could not be trusted.

THE ULTIMATUM

Of England Has Been Received at Pretoria.

There is Much Excitement as It Indicates War in the Transvaal.

PRETORIA, Sept. 12.—Great Britain's reply to the Transvaal was received at noon today and read in the Volksraad this afternoon, causing great excitement. It is regarded as an ultimatum.

LOURENÇO, Marquise, Deago Bay, Sept. 12.—Five hundred and forty-seven cases of ammunition for the Transvaal were landed here this morning.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The Pall Mall Gazette says this afternoon that prices of food stuffs and other necessities in the Rand district are increasing at alarming rates. Those remaining in Pretoria and Johannesburg are now threatened with famine.

THE BRONZE PEST.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Another case of yellow fever developed in New Orleans yesterday, and was soon followed by the death of the patient. The case occurred in the same vicinity as the other two. The board of health has been unable to discover how the disease originated in New Orleans, and his fact has caused the state of Mississippi to quarantine against the city. There are no new cases in Jackson. Key West reports eight, but no deaths.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Twelve new cases of yellow fever were reported from Tampa this morning.

NOT CONFIRMED.

PARIS, Sept. 12.—The colonial office has received no confirmation of the reported annihilation of the Fourus Lamy expedition in the Soudan. However it is not only believed it is possible, but it is also thought the outlawed Volet expedition, which recently numbered two French officers, assisted in the attack.

WAS DEAD EASY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The Famous McGovern fight takes place this afternoon, the day being clear and bright. Both boys weighed in again this morning, neither exceeding the limit.

WEST CHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 12.—McGovern knocked Palmer out in the first round.

DEAF MUTES LEAVE.

Mr. E. S. Duiguid, of Murray, arrived this afternoon with Robert Duiguid, Willie Utley, Ed Clark, Wm. Manning, Ole Parker, and Nina Warren, of Murray and Benton, en route to the institute for the deaf and dumb, at Danville. Misses Grace Yarrow and Myrtle Aday, of the city, also went.

LIKES THE JAIL.

Doc Hatfield Goes Back for Another Long Term.

Doc Hatfield is either a very foolish young man, or else he likes jail. Miller's bill of fare. Saturday he was taken from the county jail and an indictment against him for housebreaking was filed away. He is a hardscrabble, and the witnesses could not be found. He has served a year in the county jail, and Commonwealth's Attorney Bradshaw consented to let the indictment be filed away. Hatfield was released, and as he went out, he stole Former Deputy Circuit Clerk Will Kidd's coat, on which were two gold pins. The coat was missed and Hatfield was suspected. He was rearrested and the indictment against him was reinstated.

Yesterday afternoon Officer Harlan went to Mrs. Hook's, where Hatfield formerly boarded, and there found the stolen coat. Hatfield had given the pins away to young ladies at the house.

He was arrested for petty larceny and this morning Judge Sanders held him over for grand jury action.

SURPRISE WEDDING

Mr. Louis C. Hollis and Miss Florence Raser Married.

The Wedding Was a Great Surprise to Her Family and Friends Here.

Miss Florence Raser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Raser, of North Fourth street, and Mr. Louis C. Hollis, of the Wm. Clarke Tobacco Manufacturing, both formerly of Louisville, were married yesterday at Mound City, Ill. The news of the wedding was received last night by Mr. and Mrs. Raser, and was a great surprise to them as to the young lady's many friends and admirers here.

Miss Raser left Sunday on the excursion to Wickliffe, and was to stop at Mound City to visit Miss Fullerton, a friend. Mr. Hollis started on a boat last Tuesday for New Orleans, but had gotten only as far as Mound City. It is probable that the marriage was not planned until Miss Raser arrived at Mound City Sunday, although she had received a telegram from him Saturday. They will return to the city tonight on the Fowler, and reside here.

NEW POSTOFFICE.

One Established at St. John's and Named Adrian.

Through the efforts of Postmaster Fisher and Father Auer, of the St. John's neighborhood of the county, a post office has been established at the settlement named and Mr. J. W. Younger has been appointed postmaster. St. John's has long deserved a post office, being one of the best settled sections of the county, and it has come to its own now too soon. The office has been named Adrian because there is another St. John's post office in the state and out of compliment to Mr. Adrian Greif, deceased, who settled the section and for years was an honorable and beloved resident of the locality.

MR. GAITHER ACQUITTED.

He Was Not an Agent of a Foreign Insurance Company.

The jury in the case against Mr. W. C. Gaither, charged with being agent and doing business for a foreign insurance company, this morning brought in a verdict of not guilty. It appears that Mr. Gaither was only representing the agent, Mr. J. K. Greer, who has been indicted three times. The company Mr. Greer represents, it is claimed, has no license to do business in Kentucky, having withdrawn from the state.

HORSE BADLY CUT.

C. A. Torrence Comes Near Losing a Fine Horse.

Yesterday someone let out Mr. C. A. Torrence's two fine horses, and for a time it was thought they had been stolen. Last evening, however, the big bay was found badly cut across the breast, apparently by a barbed wire, and the other was shortly afterwards found running at large.

It was learned that some one turned the animals out, and if found will be prosecuted.

REMAINS ARRIVE.

The remains of the late Mr. George Frank Beard arrived this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Memphis, and were taken to the home of his parents, 215 North Third street. The funeral will take place tomorrow. His brothers, Ed and Charles, will arrive this afternoon some time.

The navy department has decided to assign Rear Admiral Farquhar to command the North Atlantic station in place of Rear Admiral Sampson, who will assume command of the Boston navy yard.

VANDERBILT DEAD

The Multi-Millionaire Could Not Buy Health and

Finally Goes the Way of All—Suddenly Expired This Morning.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Cornelius Vanderbilt, the multi-millionaire head of the Vanderbilt family, died this morning at his home.

Mr. Vanderbilt was suddenly taken ill about midnight, three hours after he had returned from Newport. Physicians were hastily summoned, but the patient gradually grew worse despite their efforts. The end came shortly after 5 o'clock. The only members of the family present were Mrs. Vanderbilt, Reginald Vanderbilt's youngest son and Gladys, youngest daughter, Alfred, the favorite son, recently left for a tour of the world. Cornelius, Jr., the eldest son, whose marriage to Jennie Wilson two years ago displeased the father, was not at the dying man's bedside.

A second stroke of paralysis followed by heart failure caused death. Several years ago Mr. Vanderbilt suffered a stroke of paralysis and for many days death hovered over him. He partially recovered but was never the same man.

The Vanderbilt estate is estimated at a hundred million dollars. It is not yet known whether Vanderbilt, in his displeasure over his son Cornelius' marriage, has cut him off with only a few million and whether Alfred comes in for greater part of the fortune.

Vanderbilt's death caused no perceptible effect on stock market.

CHIEF CLERK JONES

Resigns His Position Here With the Illinois Central.

Is to Go to the Central, With Headquarters in New Jersey.

Chief Clerk W. S. Jones, of the master mechanic's office, Illinois Central, this morning tendered his resignation, to take effect Friday, the 15th. His resignation was quite a surprise to most of the I. C. employees here, but a few had an intimation of it.

Mr. Jones resigns to accept a position with the Central Railway, of New Jersey, as chief of the master mechanic's office, with headquarters at Elizabethport, that state. He will be under Master Mechanic J. S. Chambers, formerly master mechanic here. His successor has not yet been named.

Mr. Jones has made one of the most popular and efficient chief clerks the company ever had. He was transferred here from Freeport, Ill., two years ago, and at once became a general favorite. He is a gentleman of refinement and ability, and will do well wherever he goes. He will not move his family for about a month. His many friends here will wish him success.

MAY BEAT TREATY.

Dreyfus Infamy Will Likely Influence Votes of Senators.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The Dreyfus verdict is attracting much attention throughout official quarters, but, naturally, those in responsible positions, whose opinion would be valuable are reluctant to express adverse comment because of the national aspect of the case. The feeling is general, however, in favor of Dreyfus and a strong sentiment has developed against the injustice, which, according to the prevailing belief, he has been subjected to. Some of the officials express fear that this sentiment will have a serious effect on the Franco-American treaty when it comes before the senate, as that instrument has not proved very popular and the present feeling may turn the tide against it.

ON TRIAL.

The Ross Case Will Be Heard at Smithland.

The murder case against Tom and Reuben Ross, charged with killing Walter Hooks at Grand Rivers, is on trial in the circuit court at Smithland today, according to people from Smithland. It is the most important case that has been on the docket for many years and will doubtless attract a great deal of attention and require a great deal of time.

A number of witnesses reside in the city.

PHIL STEPHON ON TRIAL.

The case against Phil Stephon, charged with keeping a disorderly house, is on trial in the circuit court, and may not be finished until tomorrow. He was indicted at the last term of court. The police are doing all they can to secure a conviction, and there is a great deal of interest being taken in the case.

ED. WILLIAMS HELD.
His Case Turned Over to the Grand Jury This Morning.

CONTRACT MADE.
The Residence Will Be Moved From Oak Grove.

Henry Williams is fortunate that his sister-in-law, Dolly McCoy, did not appear against him in Judge Sanders' court, after swearing out a warrant against him charging him with maliciously cutting her with a hatchet. She had the wounds to show for the assault, but not the courage to come back and testify.

The officers made a search for her yesterday, but learned that she had gone back to Graves county, where she came from. The warrant against him was this morning filed away with leave to reinstate, and Williams was released.

JUSTICE EMERY'S COURT.
Justice Emery had a large number of cases for trial yesterday. Several garnishee cases were decided in favor of the plaintiffs.

The attachment suit of Charles Reed against J. J. Clark was turned over to the circuit court for trial.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 12, 1899.

THE SUN'S BIRTHDAY.

Three years ago today The Sun was launched on the journalistic field. Today it is therefore celebrating its natal day. And it is feeling exceedingly well, thanks to an appreciative public.

When The Sun came into existence it was regarded as a campaign venture by its enemies, and these predicted for the paper a life of not over three months. But these months came and went and the paper lived and prospered, and though the three months became so many years, the paper still lives and prospers.

The reason is clear: to the paper's management, and it speaks not with egotism but with pride. The paper has held to sound principles, advocated sound ideas in city, county, state and national affairs, and in doing this it has ever striven to secure the most good for all the people. This work has brought it friends from all classes; from the artisan, the merchant, the manufacturer and the capitalist, for all these recognize the paper's good work and that its success means sustenance to them and theirs, whether in salary, profits or safe investments.

As ye sow so shall ye reap, and The Sun having sowed well has naturally reaped accordingly. The first days of the paper were not prosperous ones, but it was never discouraged. It was sure of its appreciation soon and knew its reward would come in time.

With the advocacy of sound and staple ideas of government came to it many readers, and within the first year of its existence it was able to secure about the best circulation of any paper printed in the city. It was then able to offer the advertising patronage more than value received, and to its list of readers was soon added a profitable list of advertisers. Then came the demand for other improvements and in the way of a job office to meet the orders for work in that line. Soon, therefore, a select material for fine commercial job printing and book work was added.

And thus has The Sun established one of the best offices to be found in the commonwealth, all the outgrowth of a modest beginning, earnest work in worthy causes, fidelity to principles and last but not least, a constant endeavor to give the people the best possible in return for their patronage.

The management finds much pride in the oft heard verdict that "The Sun is the best paper in the city," and it must be excused if it appears egotistical in using the flattering compliment. It also finds comfort in the liberal patronage received from the advertiser and from the users of printing of all kinds, for these favors have strengthened their strong box and made Saturday evenings welcomed to its large force of employees. It must therefore be allowed to express its most grateful thanks to those who have lent such substantial support to the end achieved—the up-building of a paper which all say is a credit to the place and a first class printing office.

What of the future? It will take care of itself. The Sun makes no promises—it works and leaves its deeds to speak for themselves. What it has done it feels is assurance enough to the people as to what it will do.

The bolters' Democratic ticket promises to run the Louisville combination a very close race for first place. They are certainly on the track well hunched just at present, and the man who doesn't think so is only misreading himself.

The French general is in dispute everywhere because of their connection with the Dreyfus court-martial.

The Louisville Commercial pointedly says: "General Taylor is not a political trickster; nor has he a notch on the end of his gun, but he possesses one thing another candidate lacks, a record both personal and official, that is beyond even reproach." Who will say as much for Goebel?

Mr. Gus Conter, of Mayfield, is out in another denial of the charge of bribery as made by some of the Louisville delegates to the Louisville convention. The denial is no stronger than the first one made in the case, and does not destroy the affidavits of the men who confess to being bribed.

The idea held in some parts of the land that McLean will win in Ohio is ridiculous. The Buckeye state has on one or two occasions, it is true, gone Democratic in off years, but the fight then was not the fight of today, for the issues were not the same. Look over the vote of the last election in Ohio recall the fight on hand, and then talk of the state going Democratic and you will be arrested for insanity if you are not among a crowd of nincompoops like yourself.

The Goebel men are not afraid of the Brown men, they claim, yet they are saying their war exclusively against him. The Brown men are not afraid of the Goebel men, they declare, but they are making their fight solely against them. The Republicans, however, are not afraid of either, and are just standing by encouraging them to keep on fighting. It will end about as the Kilkenny cat fight, and the remnants of the Democratic party can go over for next year's presidential campaign.

The Louisville Courier-Journal continues to ignore Mr. Blackburn in any significant way in connection with the gubernatorial contest. Does the C. J. still believe that the senator is "a liar and a scoundrel"? And by the by, has the same paper really changed its opinion of Goebel—the opinion it expressed of him in connection with the killing of Sanford and the one it held when his iniquitous election bid was passed. The people would like to read the Courier-Journal on these two changes of heart, if it has undergone any.

Mr. Goebel is either a fool or he thinks the people are. In a speech declaring himself for the separate coach law and against its repeal he said he was for amendments to the law to make it equal in all respects. When he declared himself for amendment he suggested he showed his ignorance of the law, for that is now its provision and there is a heavy penalty for any infraction, or he regarded his audience as fools and thought he could hoodwink them into ideas that he was disposed to be very fair. The assertion that the Louisville nominee is so wise a lawyer is daily being exploded.

The Leader would be all right if it only knew a little more. It says of the Goebel election law:

"As a Democratic paper we cannot afford, nor do we want any election law that is made to be used solely to further the promotion of any man or set of men, and if this present law is made to be used dishonestly, then we are unalterably for its repeal." Did not the editor of the Leader hear Mr. Goebel say his law was created solely for the purpose to control the elections. Everybody else who heard him clearly so understood him, and this is all the law means. The Leader's duty is clear! Dare it do its duty!

There is as much if not more indignation in Europe over the Dreyfus case than there is in free America. The people are quick to recognize that such decisions of an army is a crime against their welfare, and they condemn the cruelty for the sake of humanity. France is realizing her error and may arise from beneath the load of some act of her thoughtfulness, but as yet this does not seem probable. The country seems unable to awake to the necessity or fears to take the step in haste. France's army rule seems to threaten her with destruction, or to bring destruction upon her as did Spain's army rule upon that land. Poor France.

Ex-Governor Stone, of Missouri, who is in Louisville to help the Goebel ticket, says it is of vital importance to the national democratic party that this state should go for Goebel and the ticket. That settles it—the state will go for Goebel and the ticket and it will be defeated by a large and decisive vote. Thanks, Mr. Stone, for your advice. Go for the ticket, you thoughtful people; you who want fair elections, sound and honest laws, peace and continued prosperity, work at living wages and plenty of it, all that is right and the public good; go for the ticket and wipe it and all it advocates from the state once and for all time. Don't forget: Go for the ticket.

If a city is judged by the appearance of its streets, the judgment passed on our city must be severe. A stranger strolling down Broadway seeing the condition of the sidewalks, curbing, guttering and streets would not think Paducah was a bustling, live business city of 29,000 people. If the condition was a temporary occurrence it would be excusable, but it is not. Matters grow worse every day with no prospect for improvement. The present administration has the distinction of being the worst the city has ever had. They are a clever lot of men but have showed lack of ability to manage this city, as is evident to even a casual observer. Is it from a lack of attention, such attention as they would give their own business or is it incapacity. It does seem that men who are paid to look after these improvements should see the necessity of avoiding retrogression and decay. They are paid to look to the interest of the community and keep abreast of the times. They have not left a single permanent improvement to remind future generations of their services. They can yet redeem themselves by ordering a general improvement of the sidewalks, curbing and guttering on Broadway, Jefferson and Court streets, from Ninth street to the river.

The Kentucky election is attracting much attention throughout the union. The fact so well known to the average newspaper reader leads the Louisville Commercial to remark: "Yet the state is not a pivotal one, the electoral vote of the state not being essential to the success of the Republican in the next presidential election, and besides the issues are local ones. Nevertheless," continues the paper, "the probable result is a matter of wide discussion and of national interest. The secret of this condition is, of course, that everywhere it is seen that the fight in Kentucky this year is another struggle of the people for the preservation of their civic rights. It is as fully understood abroad as at home that the right of suffrage in this state has been attacked and is in danger." And to this the Commercial adds: "The concern of the voters in other states ought not to be without salutary effect upon the people whose liberties are in jeopardy. We ought to exhibit our appreciation of the sympathy of our fellow citizens elsewhere by redoubled effort in our own behalf. Long before the day of the election it ought to be clear that the Goebel scheme of disfranchisement can not win in Kentucky. The country ought to be assured that Kentucky is still the abode of free men."

"STRAWS SHOW," ETC.

In Mulenberg the democrats are said to be in open revolt against Goebel and hundreds will vote against him. In one precinct, that at Greenville, only 60 out of 180 Democrats were found to be for Goebel by actual count. The disaffection is said to be spreading.

Col. Jeff Nichols, the democratic nominee for representative in Livingston and Crittenden counties, is said to have about as much chance to get to the legislature as he has of flying. His opponent is Rev. D. B. Blackburn, father of Deputy W. A. Blackburn of Marshal James' office. Rev. Blackburn defeated Nichols by 400 votes four years ago and this majority above that. He is a Baptist minister and will have the support of all the Baptists in addition to that of the better class of farmers and citizens generally. This means the loss of a vote for Blackburn and also votes for Goebel.

Judge Breckinridge, of the Goebel ticket, who has just finished a speaking tour during which he has made 24 speeches, says that Grayson and Warren counties are from common report the worst in the state. In the former, he hears, that from 150 to 200 Democrats would vote against Goebel, were the election to be held tomorrow. In Warren the disaffection is even greater, affecting from 300 to 350 votes.

TARVIN'S LATEST.

Judge Tarvin, the fellow who nominated Goebel before the Louisville convention, is out in an interview repudiating Goebel in strong terms. The judge spoke yesterday at Frankfort and never once mentioned Goebel's name nor did he abuse the so-called bolters. The interview mentioned is as follows:

COVINGTON, Sept. 11.—Judge Tarvin came home yesterday and left for Frankfort in the evening. Before leaving he said: "I have come home to my political grave. I intend to speak for the platform of the Louisville convention because I wrote it and it embodies the principles of Democracy. I do not see how I can do otherwise. I will not mention the name of Goebel nor of Brown. I will call no one a bolter. I will not defend the Louisville convention nor will I condemn it. The nomination is a great calamity and I regret it, but it never would have happened if Harritt or Stone had the political sense of a chicken. But even if there was fraud at the Louisville convention is that any reason Brown and free silver should be injured?"

"Goebel is not my style of man. I am not going to speak for him, but for the Democratic platform, and if the feeling against Goebel is as strong in other parts of Kentucky as it is in Covington, he will not poll 25,000 votes."

"I believe Bryan will come to Kentucky and speak for Goebel, but if he does Altgeld will also come and speak against Goebel."

WHO WILL SPEAK?

It has been charged, and stands uncontroverted, that Mr. Goebel entered into a combination with ex-Secretary of the Treasury John G. Carlisle and Mr. W. B. Haldeman to send a sound money delegation to the last national democratic convention at Chicago and also defeat Capt. Blackburn for United States senator. These accusations place Mr. Goebel in a bad light with the silver Democrats, says the Louisville Commercial, but when Mr. Goebel's treachery to Hon. W. J. Stone at the Music hall convention is recalled it is not hard to believe that he entered into a conspiracy with Capt. Blackburn's most bitter enemies, to betray the silver senator. Perhaps, too, Mr. Bryan will have a word of explanation to ask Mr. Goebel before he makes his proposed visit to Kentucky. In fact developments are proving to free silver Democrats that Mr. Goebel has been and is now, too intimate with John G. Carlisle and W. B. Haldeman to be a true friend to free silver and Democrats who are candidates upon that issue. A statement from Congressman Berry, who was a witness to the agreement made by Carlisle, Haldeman and Goebel, would do much to clear up matters.

Observations ...at Random.

Marshal Collins has developed an abnormal penchant for trading that would be hard to beat.

The latest story told on him is that he took an old spring back knife left at the city hall by some fugitive bully, went down towards market with it and before the corner had been reached related a harrowing story about it having been the only weapon of the late lamented Daniel Boone, and had swapped it for a new four-bladed jackknife. He stopped in a second hand store on his way down and traded for an old pistol. At the next store he traded for a still better pistol and this he traded to a yoke-buff vendor for a hog. Before he had gone ten paces with the pig he began jolly another friend from the country and traded him the hog for two sheep. He swapped the sheep for an emaciated cow. He may have inflated the cow with a bicycle pump; at any rate he rubbed her up and traded her for a horse, and in ten minutes had a mule and wagon in exchange for the horse.

He put a boy in to drive the rig to the city hall, but happened to meet a man who wanted just such a contraption, and he gave a pony and $25 to boot for it. Marshal Collins stuck the $25 in his pocket and sold the pony for $35 more. If he hadn't stopped there he never would have gotten home that day, and would have owned half the whole town by dark if negotiations hadn't come to an end.

More school children seem to be miserable over the failure of school to begin yesterday than happy. The school houses have been wont to ring with the merry laughter of returning children before this every year, and they now all look quite deserted.

One of the afternoon papers yesterday remarked in speaking of a crowd of Paducah excursionists in Wickliffe "When they got to Wickliffe they went ashore to witness a ball game between the Wickliffe and Metropolis teams, but just as they got on the field it began raining, and in five minutes the window was drenched to the skin."
No wonder the people of Kentucky have such a reputation in regard to water. Why, if it took five months to drench a Kentuckian the outside world will wonder how long it would require to drown him.

Every man who has a dog, like every man who boasts of a baby, thinks it is the sweetest in the world.
Dr. John Bonds, the druggist, has a spaniel, and imagines that it is the only dog in the world worth having. He thinks it has lots more sense than some people, and feels quite sure it has more than those who wear Brown buttons.

The other day he was telling a crowd some of the things it can do. When he had finished he looked defiantly at the others as if to say, "Beat that if you can."

Officer Fayette Jones was present, and began relating how a dog he once owned would act as playmate and as protector of his nephew, draw his little art for him when he was too tired to longer draw it himself, and other remarkable things for a dog to do. His best friend Bonds' story all hollow.

"I'll tell you, gentlemen," began City Attorney Lightfoot, "I never owned a dog myself. They were all-ways afraid at home to let me have one for fear it would tramp on me and hurt me. My uncle, however, had one of the most remarkable dogs that ever lived. He resided up here in Daviess county, near Owensboro, and a faithful duty he never failed to perform, except when ill or absent, was that of winding the clock before he went to bed at night. This the dog knew from constant observation.

"One day my uncle went to Owensboro, and that night, during his absence, a relative was there to spend the evening. The dog was shut out, but about 10 o'clock, my uncle's bedtime, he began to bark and scratch the door furiously to be let in. Somebody tried to drive him away, but in a short time he was back scratching and barking as before. He was admitted and ran straight to the mantle and began to jump up at the clock. The attention of the others was thus called to it, and they saw that it was really on down and wound it. The dog then curled himself up contentedly in the corner and went to sleep."

Dr. Bonds looked too full for interference when the lawyer had ceased, and officer Jones said something about "By hoes, he'd never relate another dog story in the presence of a plague-cure feet," and left in indignation and a hurry.

The Pikes Peak, Colorado, Daily News

"Mr. J. R. Staters, conductor on the Memphis Division of the Illinois Central railroad, visited the Daily News this the beauties of Pike's Peak in all their glory at his leisure. Mr. Staters is one he is one of the most popular conductors on the great Illinois Central, as fore he returns to duty."

each other in the cars. All the trains are more or less delayed, everything being run on the block system, which prohibits sections running closer than half an hour.

"There's a new wrinkle" remarked a man on Broadway this morning. "I've heard of red-headed ladies and white horses going together, but it's the first time I ever saw a red-headed woman on a white bicycle." And as he spoke the unusual spectacle vanished. It would appear that the bicycle is knocking the horse out of even his red-headed girl.

The Fulton Guard, in explaining how Jack Brodie lost the snoring contest there last Friday, says: "Henry McKnight refereed the bout and gave the decision to Bolan in the fourth is not stated whether it was a chicken, turkey or duck.

NIAGARA NOW AT ITS BEST.
It Will Lose in Beauty in Five or Six Hundred Years.

If Mrs. van Rensselaer's opinion is correct, Niagara Falls will be a less beautiful object in the year 2500 than it is today. In the June Century she gives the reasons for her belief: The Niagara river belongs to our own era of the world's interminable history, and to it alone. We may help it with some recent investigators, that it began to cut its way through the higher tableland about six thousand years ago, or we may say with others, thirty thousand years ago. But even the farther end of thirty thousand years is a geological yesterday, and if it is true that the falls will stand well back of the head of Goat Island in five or six hundred years, this is a very near tomorrow. Moreover, the finest phase of Niagara's life belongs to the geological today. It is at its very best now that Goat Island is the natural feature of the falls. Before they reached it they must have formed a single, undivided and relatively narrow cataract or series of cascades, and after its upper end is left behind there can never again be such a combination of diverse majesties and loveliness. Only for the half mile along Goat Island's side are there divided yet fraternal channels filled with shining, shouting rapids.
When it has been left behind, the wide river, flowing over an almost level bed, will approach its cliff quite calmly and make its plunge like a millstream over a dam. And this forest-lad island, lifted high and set in a fortunate eddy of the river bed, gives views which no other, farther up-stream, can ever afford. It separates and yet unites the cataracts. Now it puts the eye far above them, and again it brings them quite close. With the islets that lie near it, it gives outlooks up both the streams of rapids and the placid river beyond them, across the gorge and down its length, and athwart the one fall and the other; and most of these views it frames in draperies of luxuriant green. Truly, the pilgrims of a later day will not see the Niagara, the marvel that belongs to us.

But Beware of the Result.
You begin by declaring that if anyone will write something on a piece of paper, you will undertake to say what there is upon it. Should anyone desire to test you, tell him, when he has written something on a piece of paper, to roll it up small and hold the paper straight up in his hand, and after making him hold it up a number of different ways, say: "Now place the paper on the ground in the middle of the room, and in order that I may not have the chance of lifting it up in the least, please place both your feet upon it. I will then proceed to inquire of you what is on the paper." And after going through all sorts of maneuvers to mislead the spectators, you finally turn to the gentleman who is standing with both feet on the paper, and say:
"I have undertaken to state what was upon that piece of paper. You are upon it."

Well, Not Exact.

charming young widow since I left

CALLED MEETING Street Improvement Ordinances Given Final Passage.

Nine Members Were Present—Proceedings of the Meeting.

The council met last night in called session, Mayor Lang presiding, and Councilmen Jackson, Johnson, Fower, Jones, Winstead, Davis, Ezell, Elliott and Clark present. Councilman Yeiser, Smith and Robertson were absent.

Mayor Lang had read his call.
The two ordinances for the improvement of Tenth street were given final passage. The improvements extend from Court to Hudson street.
The final report of the mayor and street committee, recommending the acceptance of the North Eighth street improvements made by Contractor E. C. Terrell was read and the report was concurred in.
A petition from Mrs. Frank Rodfus to erect a shed in front of her property at Fifth and Jackson was granted on condition it is constructed so it will not interfere with water or light apparatus.

Mayor Lang communicated to the council that the water mains ordered some time ago on Broad street near Sixth had never been laid, and as a result there was a house destroyed by fire a few nights ago for want of water. The mayor was instructed to look after the matter and have the mains laid.

The Baumer bill, which has not yet been begun, was next brought up for discussion. A communication was read from Supt. Harahan, of the I.
C., relative to some property through which a roadway would be run. The company, as it understood the matter, objected to the bill, but had no objection to the city's using the property until the company should find use of it. Mayor Lang recommended that the "bill" be abandoned until City Engineer Wilcox can investigate and ascertain whether or not the city can get a right-of-way on what Fourteenth would be. Work on the "bill" was ordered held up and the matter was referred to the mayor, street committee and city engineer.

Councilman Fowler said that several persons near First and Broadway wanted to get water from the river and wanted permission to lay pipes underground and under the wharf-boats and place a pump on the wharf-boat.

The matter was referred to the wharfmaster and city engineer.
Councilman Elliott made a statement relative to the bad condition of the alley running from Second street and Court, in the rear of the business houses on Second and Third streets. He wanted the cost of repairing it appraised and charged to the sewerage contractors.

Mayor Lang said that the streets over which the sewerage inspectors had gone, in good shape, was in fact of Messrs. John O'Brien and T. P.
Carter were employed to go over the streets and appraise the cost of getting them into good shape. This was the basis of all these apprais-ments, they being competent men and were able to judge.

It was decided to appraise all the alleys and repair them at the city's expense, the cost to be charged to
the sewerage contractors.

The council adjourned.

The Misses Bell Complexion and Hair Specialists.

The brilliant complexions of women in the more exclusive circles of New York society are not explained by the theory that associates beauty and idleness.
In fact, many leaders of the world of fashion are hard workers. Yet they keep their good looks even when they are old. How do they manage it?
THE BELLS BELLS, of 75 Fifth Avenue, New York, themselves consulted with some of the most noted and honored families in the metropolis, have answered the question. They have prepared for the use of women a general, five preparations for improving the complexion and the hair.

Five Toilet Treasures.

THE BELLS' COMPLEXION TONIC
Is an external application, the presence of which on the face cannot be detected.
It is perfectly harmless even to the most delicate skin. It is a sure and quick cure for all blemishes. This soap is dainty and healthy. It acts on the skin as a tonic, producing a naturally pure complexion. Cosmetics never have been so successful as the Bell's Tonic.
It removes pimples, freckles, black heads, moth patches, liver spots, eczema, eczema, eczema, eczema, eczema, eczema,
and all other blemishes of the skin. Price, $1 a bottle.

The Misses BELL'S
HAIR TONIC
Cures dandruff and prevents any return of it; stops that miserable itching of the scalp and makes the hair strong, soft and lustrous. It is especially helpful to persons whose hair is thin, dry and falls out. It keeps the hair clean and the skin about the roots of the hair will soon cover bald spots with a handsome growth. Price, $1 a bottle.

The Misses BELL'S
CAPILLA-RENOVA
For restoring prematurely gray hair to its original color.
It is a five-day hair restorer. It is a colorless liquid that is applied to the roots of the hair and leaves no telltale signs on the scalp or forehead.
Neither does it change the color of the hair all at once. Only very gradually they wash off. But Capilla-Renova restores the hair to its original color.
Price, 25 cents per cake, large 50-cent size.

The Misses BELL'S SKIN FOOD
Is a soft, creamy, exquisite perfume and, in mild cases of roughness, redness, pimples, etc., is a cure in itself. It cleans the skin of all impurities and feeds it by building up the texture and making the flesh beneath it solid and firm. Price, 75 cents per jar.

A willow mattress 1,400 feet long and heavily loaded with rock was sunk at Hopefield, Ark., Saturday last, to save the threatened cut off of the Mississippi at that point. The government engineers are also hope- ful that this mattress will improve the water in the port at Memphis and wash away a part if not all of the big sand bar which has gathered just above that landing within the past few years and almost cut off some of the town's river front.

There are quite a number of river men reading here who are on the sick list.

"A MAN OF MYSTERY."
Great Play at Morton's Tomor- row Night.

In "A Man of Mystery" the new melo- drama which has created such a sensa- tion, the "Shadow" hypnotizes a man and makes him rob his own safe, is modeled on a real man, whose portrait hangs in a dozen "rogues' galleries" throughout the country, and whose life is the subject of a chapter in Hynes' book of criminals. Truth is stranger than fiction, and the leading incidents of "A Man of Mystery" are taken from actual occurrences.

BITTEN BY A DOG.

Mad Stone Applied to Master Wil- lie Frederick Today.

Mr. Chas. Frederick, agent for the White sewing machine, this morning had applied to the leg of his little son, Willie, Captain Joe Fowler's mad stone. The lad was bitten on the limb by "Jack," one of Mr. Frank Effinger's animals, Sunday evening. Jack has since died, having been poisoned along with Trisxie and some of the chickens yesterday morning, thus obviating the necessity of killing him, or he would have been killed by Mr. Ef- finger.

DAY OF ATONEMENT.

The Jewish community of Padu- cah is preparing for the observance of their most sacred feast, the Day of Atonement. The name of this day in the original Hebrew is Yom Kippurim, signifying the day of forgive- ness of spiritual purification. Tis on this feast that in ancient times, when the temple of Jerusalem was the center of Jewish worship, the hosts of Israel assembled at the temple, while the high priest first robed in gold and then robed in white entered the holy of holies, which was his annual privilege and duty, and whispered in the presence of God words of confession for priest, peo- ple and man. Upon his reap-ear- ance, there was great joy among the people, and merry-making, and Israel's fair daughter danced on the hills of Zion. Naught could as much thrill Israel, inspire young and old, as the thought of purity.

In the course of time the fea- tures of the observance naturally changed. Many a tragic note were inserted where at first were but times of joy—but this has been the work of cen- turies. Now, the Jews observe the Day of Atonement with great so- lemnity, both inward and outward, by temple service and abstinence from work and food.

The observance will begin Wed- nesday night, September 13, and continue all day Thursday. Tem- ple Israel will hold solemn service on Wednesday night commencing at 7:30, Thursday morning at 9:30, Thursday afternoon at 3:30. Rabbi H. G. Endow will preach Wednes- day night on "The Soul Awake," on Thursday morning on "The Spiritual Possibilities of Sin."

Rabbi Endow wishes to ex- plain, in reply to many inquiries, that there is nothing secret about any Jewish service, whether on Sabbath or Feast, that the temple is a house of worship for whomsoever may choose to come, that no person has been refused ad- mission within its sacred portals, but that, on the contrary, everybody is welcome, on all occasions, who wishes to learn something about the truths of the Jewish faith.

HUMAN EAR.
Is Easily Deceived, and Many Curious Errors Result.

New York Tribune. "It is strange," said a Jersey City high school teacher, "that people have such confidence in their ears. Even the courts, so keen to sift testimony, readily believe a witness who is supposed to be trust- worthy if he says: 'Mr. Jones said so and so.' Probably his ears deceived him, and Mr. Jones said something very different. My experience in dic- tation work convinces me that the hu- man ear is often a poor witness. Last week I dictated a stanza in which occurs the words: 'And animation wakes.' One of the most attentive girls in the school wrote it 'And animation waits.' In another exercise was the quotation, 'To err is human, to forgive divine.' This was written, 'To air is humor and to forgive design.' I be- lieve from these and many similar ex- periences that the ear is often excee- dingly inaccurate in recording impres- sions of sound." Another teacher who was standing by agreed with this, and told the story of her little sister, who had picked up many hymns by hearing them sung in church. In one line occurred "I want to be with them then." And the child one day was heard singing fervently: "I want to be with the men."

COOLING.
They were seated at the ice-cream table. "Oh, dear!" said the sweet girl, fanning her cheek, "I'm melting." The young man saw an opportunity. "I knew it was rather warm," he said, "but I didn't think it was as hot as that." "What do you mean?" "Why, hot enough to melt pure gold."

A Woman Executioner.
In pre-revolutionary days there was a woman public executioner in Vir- ginia. At that time death sentences were respite on condition that a criminal should perform this office. "Lady Betty," as she was afterwards called, was sentenced to death for murder. She offered instead to become public executioner, and held this office for many years. It is said that on the scaffold she officiated without a mask.
